The five-minute daily method

Manifestation works when it changes how you see yourself, not when it becomes a wish list. Do these five steps every morning. Five minutes is enough. Consistency is the magic.

I

Three specific gratitudes

"The way the light hit my kitchen" beats "my home." Specific gratitude tells your mind good things are normal for you.

II

One prompt, answered honestly

Choose a prompt from the next three pages. Write until you surprise yourself.

III

Three lines of scripting

Write in the present tense as the version of you who already has it. Make it specific and emotional.

IV

One aligned action

Name one move you'll make today, however small, that your future self would make.

V

One affirmation, spoken aloud

Choose a card from the back of this kit. Say it like you mean it.

Getting Clear

01 If nothing were off the table, what would my life look like one year from today?

02 What do I want that I've been too embarrassed to admit, even to myself?

03 Which of my goals are truly mine, and which did I borrow from someone else?

04 How do I want to feel every day, and what would create that feeling?

05 What am I tolerating right now that the next version of me would not?

Self-Concept

06 Who would I be if I already had it, and what would that version of me do today?

07 What three words describe who I'm becoming? Where am I already living them?

08 What do I believe I deserve, and where did that belief come from?

09 How does my future self speak? Write a paragraph in that voice.

10 What evidence from my past proves I'm capable of more than I give myself credit for?

Releasing Limiting Beliefs

11 What story about money did I inherit, and what story am I choosing now?

12 Finish the sentence: "People like me can't..." Now write why that isn't true.

13 What would I lose if I got everything I wanted? What am I afraid of?

14 Whose opinion am I still living for, and what would change if I let it go?

15 Which belief, if I dropped it today, would change everything?

Gratitude

16 What am I grateful for today that I once prayed for?

17 Who made my life better this week, and how can I tell them?

18 What hard experience am I now grateful for, and what did it give me?

19 Write a thank-you note to your future self for the choices you're making today.

20 What's already abundant in my life that I keep overlooking?

Visualization

21 Describe one ordinary Tuesday in my dream life, hour by hour.

22 What does my home look, sound and smell like in my next chapter?

23 Which three images belong on my vision board this season, and why?

24 Picture the moment you get the news. Where are you? Who do you call first?

25 What does my body feel like when I'm living fully aligned?

Money, Love & Career

26 What is my exact income goal, and what would it let me do, give and become?

27 How would I treat money if I knew more was always coming?

28 How do I want to feel in my relationship, and do I give myself that feeling now?

29 What standard am I ready to hold, without apology?

30 What would I build if I knew it couldn't fail, and what's the first step this week?

High Vibration

31 What drains my energy, and what's one boundary that would protect it?

32 What reliably lifts my mood in five minutes or less?

33 Which thought did I repeat most yesterday? Is it one I want to keep?

34 How can I make today feel like my future self's ordinary day?

35 Where am I waiting to feel good "once it arrives"? How can I feel it now?

Daily Check-Ins

36 Morning: what is today's one non-negotiable for who I'm becoming?

37 Morning: how will I know today went well?

38 Evening: where did I see evidence today that it's working?

39 Evening: what did I handle like my future self?

40 Evening: what am I releasing before I sleep?

Aligned Action

41 What's one bold move I've been postponing, and what date will I make it?

42 What would I do today if I trusted it was already done?

43 Which opportunity in front of me am I ignoring because it looks different than I expected?

44 Who do I need to talk to, ask or invite this week?

45 What did I do this week that the old me wouldn't have dared?

✦ YOUR FIRST WEEK

The seven-day kickstart

One focused practice a day, on top of your five-minute method. Write your answers in the space below each day.

DAY I

Clarity

Write your one-year vision as if nothing is off the table. Then circle the three desires that make your heart race.

DAY II

Gratitude

List ten specific things you're grateful for, including one thing you once prayed for that you now have.

DAY III

Self-concept

Write three words that describe who you're becoming. Find one place you're already living each word.

DAY IV

Release

Finish the sentence “People like me can't…” five times. Cross each one out and rewrite it as the truth you're choosing.

DAY V

Scripting

Write tonight's journal entry as if your biggest desire happened today. Include how it feels in your body.

DAY VI

Visualization

Spend five minutes picturing one ordinary day in your dream life. Then add three images to a vision board.

DAY VII

Aligned action

Take one bold step you've been postponing. Send the email, make the ask, book the thing. Then celebrate it.
